

SPECIAL EVENT NOTICE TO RESIDENTS

Sunday June 12th 2011

IMPORTANT TRAFFIC INFORMATION

(See Reverse for Traffic and Parking Restrictions)

Come feel the excitement as racers from the Pacific Northwest and Canada compete to win the 7th Annual TNA Westside Cycling Classic presented by Shape Properties & Mosaic Homes!

The Wedgewood Cycling Team is thrilled to invite you to watch one of BC's premier road cycling events of 2011. The TNA Westside Cycling Classic will be held this year on Sunday, June 12th, 2011 against the spectacular setting of Pacific Spirit Park surrounded by the Pacific Ocean and the Coastal Mountains. This annual event is one of the Wedgewood Cycling Team's main fundraising events in support of the BC Cancer Foundation.

There are four races this year, the first two starting around 7:30 am and the last two starting around 10am. All racing is expected to be completed by 2pm with all roads open by 3pm.

NEW for 2011 is the PreFondo Ride starting around 7:30am, which is sure to attract a great deal of interest for people preparing to ride one of the many Gran Fondo or Charity Rides this year.

How Does This Affect You?

Parking restrictions and road closures will be in place along portions of the race route; however, there will be access to your favorite Sunday destinations in the Pacific Spirit park area. Check out the map above for the race route and see the map on the reverse for ways to navigate around the race.

Come Share In The Action! Highly coveted viewpoints are located on Camosun Street, where riders charge up the hill to St. Georges School, and at the Start/Finish area at W. 16th Avenue and Trimble, where you can take in team preparations, browse the Expo, learn more about the BC Cancer Foundation, and witness the awards and presentations!
